The only valuable Part of the Gentleman's Magazine for the last Six Months, particularly above half of December is stolen from the LONDON MAGAZINE of the preceding Month which shews what the Readers of that false Collection may expect in the ensuing Year. His true Character take in the Words of Common Sense, Jan. 28, 1747-8, viz.

"We can't help bestowing a Word or two upon the Gentleman's Magazine, of whom we may truly say, he has not only rob'd but murder'd Common Sense; not content with stealing every thing he can lay his Hands on, he so mangles and defaces what he steals, that it is impossible their Natural Parents should know them. This Butcher bears a most barbarous Hatred against every thing that looks like Spirit in Writing; an ingenious Sentiment has something in it he cannot bear; wherever he meets a Thought of Wit, he cuts it off without Mercy; he is determined no such Things shall be seen in his Magazine."

An immediate and never-failing CURE

Deafness, Thickens of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, &c.

BY a noble Chymical Preparation,

A most excellent Medicine for this Purpose that ever known, far exceeding all things ever yet published, or Use of; its Virtues are beyond Expression, and cannot truly be known but by Experience: Words come short of its just Praise.

It is a certain, and, as it were, an instant Cure for Deafness of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, from Cause soever, or of ever so long standing, having cured Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and all Ages, that have in a manner totally deaf, after all other Means and Medicines have failed, with the greatest Ease and Safety, and to the utmost Satisfaction and Wonder; for,

In a peculiar Manner it strengthens, softens, and loosens the Drum of the Ear, which by being dried, or driven off the first, and chief Cause of every Complaint of Deafness, or of Noise, or Pain in the Ears, &c. To remove which, this noble Medicine is a true Specifick, that never perfectly to cure all possibly curable Cases, after all Means and Medicine have utterly failed; which is more can be said of any other Thing in the whole World of itself: Any Cold in the Head, or any Hurt by cold Matter in the Ears, it instantly cures.

It is sold for 3 s. 6 d. each Bottle, by the Author's Appointment, at Mr. Richardson's Tinshop, the Sign of the Black Horse and Star, in Fleet-street, near Fleet-Market, and no where else in England.

The incomparable POWDER for Cleaning the TEETH,

Has withstood, by its most excellent and known Virtues, Attempts of many repeated Counterfeits; some imitated by the Name of Powder, others under several other Names therefore pray take Notice, that the only true effect and original Powder, is sold no where else, but at the below: It is sent for in large Quantities from the Plantations beyond the Seas, where good Allowance is given; it is as effectual in the East and West Indies as in London.

It has given surprising Satisfaction to most of the Nobility and Gentry in England, for at these 30 Years that it has been published, and vast Quantities of it still continue to be sold.

It is sold only at Mrs. King's Toyshop, the Blue-rose against the Cross Keys Tavern in Cornhill, and at Mr. Markham's Toyshop, the Seven Stars under St. Dunstons Church in Fleet-street, and no where else in England at each Box.

At once using it makes the Teeth as white as Ivory, tho' so black or yellow before, and effectually prevents them from rotting or decaying, continuing them found to exceeding Age. It wonderfully cures the Scurvey in the Gums, prevents Rheum or Deafness, kills the Worms at the Roots of Teeth, and thereby hinders the Tooth-ach. It cleans fastens loose Teeth, being a neat cleanly Medicine, of a pleasant and grateful Sent, and in Virtue far exceeds any I ever yet found out for those Purposes.

All the Nobility, Gentry, &c. who send to Mrs. Markham for the Powder for Teeth, are desired to give strict Orders to mistake the Shop, (MARKHAM's length is under Seven Stars) because most of the Toy-men in her Neighbourhood, seeing Multitudes go to her Shop for it, have contrived to counterfeit and sell their Stuff in Imitation of this and approved Powder, in Prejudice to the Publick, &c.

THE LIP-SALVE

Which is so much esteemed, and of so many Years large experience, and whose Virtues vastly exceed any Counterfeits sold at the same Places at 1 s. each Box.

For in two or three Hours time it heals them, tho' never rough or chapt; prevents the Skin from peeling, and makes them delicately soft and smooth, giving them a becoming bright and Colour; the Fragrance of its Odour also renders the Breath fine and sweet, and it may be eaten for its Safety.
